Foreword

It is well known that time once past never returns; and that moment which is lost is lost forever. Time therefore ought, above all other kinds of property, to be free from invasion; and yet there is no man who does not claim the power of wasting that time which is the right of others.

ACHIEVEMENT

Let us, then, be up and doing, with a heart for any fate;
still achieving, still pursuing,
learn to labor and to wait.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

We Do Not Remember Days, We Remember Moments—

Mystic Moments
Of Laughter And Joy,
Sunny Smiles And
Cloudless Skies,
Unexpected Smiles . . .

In Times Of High Spirits
When Our Expectations Fail,
Many Times We Doubted
And Feared We Might Not Make It . . .

And With The Last Of Our Strength
 We Persevered And Pushed
 Through
 And Reached Our Goal
 We Could Achieve Our Goal

And We Remember Winning
After Almost Losing.
But Our Effort Rather Than
The Defeat Is What Counted.

My Darling, I remember and think back to the time
The Angel of Time
Gave my heart to
You. I love you
Forever.

And We Remember
Those Who Were
Sincere, Helpful,
And Patient

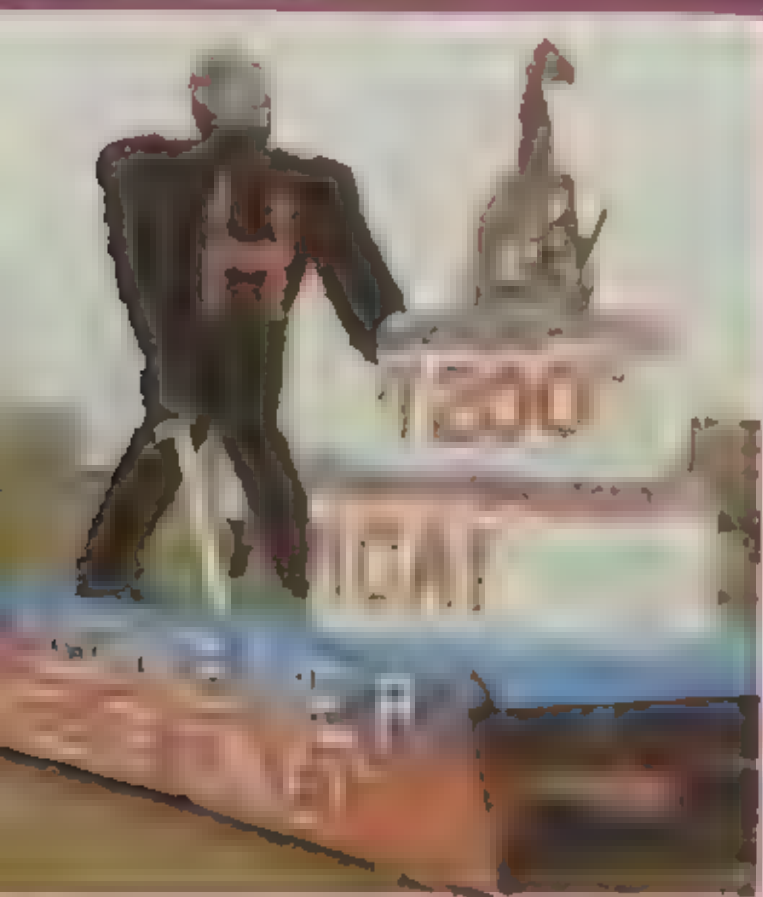

And Those Who Listened
 When They Had Someone
 To Talk To.

Now Is Our Time To Leave This Phase Of
Our Life Behind
And Begin Again Using The Lessons Of Love And Life We Have Gained With Us
Throughout The Years.

I have been very happy to be the first to see the new building
 and the new school
 and the new school
 and the new school
 and the new school

In Special

During the past four years, we the 1977 Graduates have encountered many faculty members and assistants who have provided us with lasting memories. Many dedicated people have earned our lasting respect, but a special handful stand out because of their guidance, counseling, understanding, and teaching.

They came to us with high hopes, a willingness to listen, and a desire to give us some of their wisdom and knowledge. Three individuals put more into their jobs than what was required. They especially helped us build our characters and personalities. We, therefore, give a special thanks and recognition to Mr. BRUCE FASNACHT, Mrs. SHIRLEY ESHLEMAN, and Mr. DEAN LOWRY.

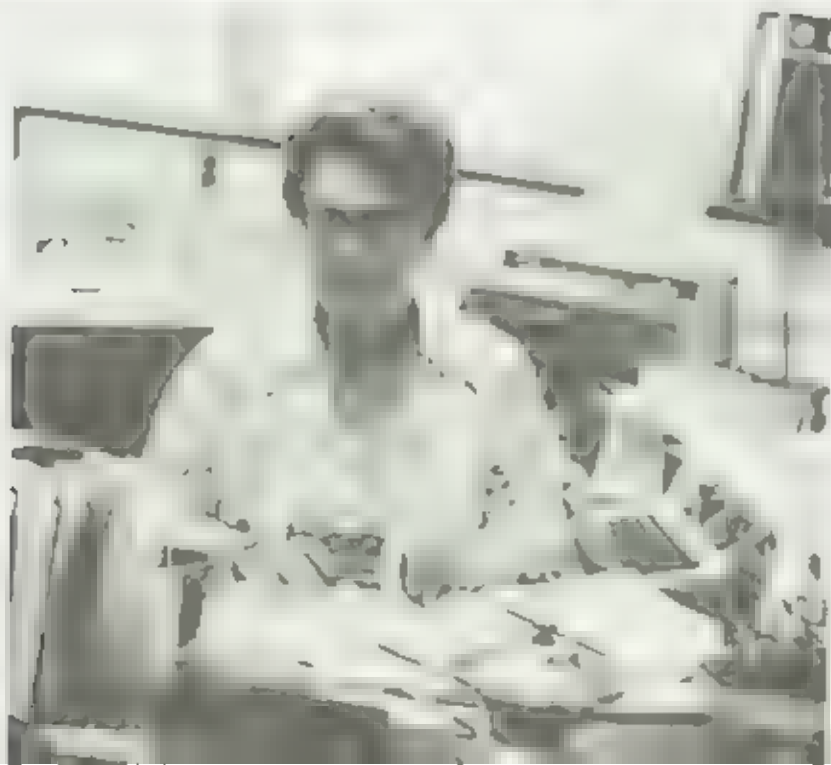

As our friend, father-at-school, and Guidance Counselor, Mr. Fasnacht has been an invaluable asset in helping us form our future. He has helped us to decide what steps we want to take when we have been lost in the maze of decisions and problems. Truly, we owe much appreciation for such a superior counselor.

Recognition

A major plus for the Buchanan House Office is Mrs. Eshleman. She is undoubtedly the most willing person to help students, regardless of their difficulties or records. Whatever the reason a person has for visiting the office, Mrs. Eshleman greets them with a smile and a remark that automatically eases the tension. We recognize her for her unselfishness, storehouse of information, and obvious "glad to be alive" feeling.

Mr. Lowry is one rare person who always has the ability to make us laugh and learn at the same time. He gave us much more than just a better understanding of Algebra by making life and learning a little more fun for everyone. He is known for saying "Hi there Cutie," but little does he know he is our special "cutie". He has earned our respect, not only as a teacher, but as a true friend.

To Mr. Fasnacht, Mrs. Eshleman, and Mr. Lowry—please except our most sincere thanks and appreciation

Senior Class Bids Farewell

The Class of 1977 led an eventful year at Hempfield, especially with all eyes busily pointing toward graduation.

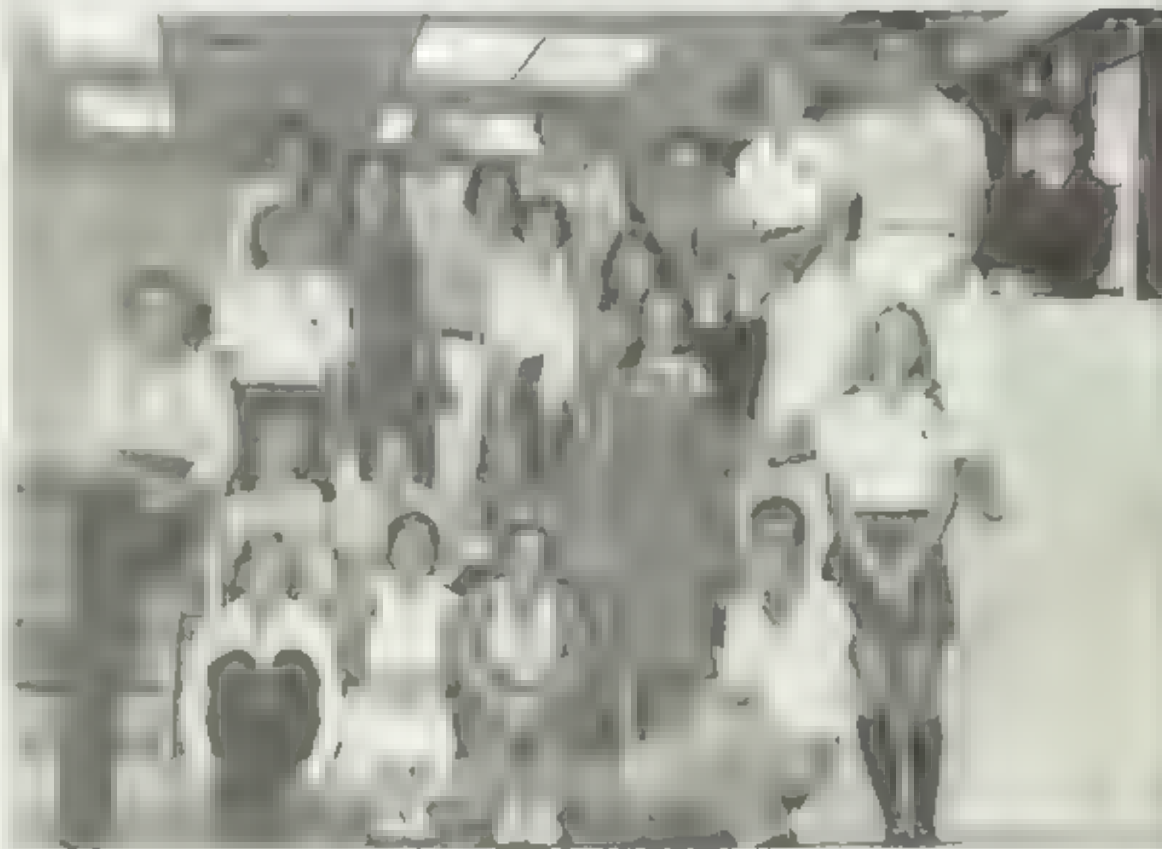

Exchanging senior portrait pictures, ordering graduation announcements, being measured for caps and gowns and trying to choose a college, all helped to make the classmembers realize how quickly their last year at Hempfield was coming to an end.

Through the year, the class was active as they sponsored their last Homecoming dance, sold buttons, conducted a hoagie sale, prepared for the post-prom, January graduation and the class trip to Washington, D.C.

Mr. Albert Barone and Mr. Laverne Houck, the class advisors, provided needed leadership and guidance throughout the year and helped make the year a success.

It was a year seniors will long remember, regardless of the line of work or life-styles that the future will hold for them

44 Cheer January Commencement

Hempfield held its fourth annual January Commencement before a full house in Hackman Auditorium to celebrate the success and achievement of the 44 graduating seniors.

Student remarks were addressed to the graduating class by Rebecca Hoffman and Louis Helmuth. Following a solo by June Grube, accompanied by Sandra Burkart, the class listened to reminders and advice from Earl N. Hummel, School Board President, Dr. Raymond S. Froling, Assistant Superintendent, and Richard C. Harclerode, High School Principal.

After receiving their diplomas, the students returned to their seats to think of and enjoy the moment and burst into a happy applause when the commencement was concluded.

BOTTOM MIDDLE Telling it like it is.

School Board, Administration,

The Hempfield administration and faculty rank at the top in the state according to various public and private officials, a claim varified by recent independent tests and evaluations. This reputation was not obtained accidentally, but came about through a combination of factors such as parental concerns, social and economic backgrounds of students, faculty and administration dedication, and the enlightened action and policies of the Hempfield School Board.

At the top of the Administrative ladder is Superintendent Donald F. Bissinger. He is capably assisted at the district level by Raymond S. Froling, Assistant Superintendent—Secondary, and Frederick H. Smedley, Director of Elementary Education. John W. Wolf is Administrative Assistant for Business Affairs and Secretary to the Board.

At the high school level, Principal Richard C. Harclerode oversees a student body of approximately 2,000 and a professional staff of over

Creativity Earmarks Junior Class Success

Money, spirit, and winning are all desirable traits that could be attributed to the Junior Class, but the Class of 1978 puts its best foot forward when creativity is the subject at hand. The class walked off with the prized top float award during Homecoming festivities by presenting a Snake with the appropriate wording of "Don't Tread

On Me" as their theme

The class also did a "superior" job in sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom at the Host Farm. In addition, the class sponsored the first dance of the year and featured "Fat Cat," an outstanding group. The class also took over management of a local restaurant, Jumbo, and raised money that helped give their prom a "touch of class".

The class received outstanding leadership from President Sandy Bizal, Vice-President Nancy Zaranka, Secretary Anne Henry, Treasurer Sue Lamb, and Historian Tammy Kleine. Advisors are Mrs. Connie Baker and Mr. Barry Henry

Money-Making Sophomores Show Spirit

The Sophomore Class appeared ready to take on the real world by leading the school classes in money-making projects during 1976-77. The class, according to Sophomore advisors Miss Cynthia Cook and Mr. James Madara, was described as "enthusiastic" and "fantastic". To prove the point, the class held a profitable pizza sale in November, an equally profitable bake sale in December, a "great" hoagie sale, a money-making "Fun Night", and two dances. They were then ready to buy the world with their profits, but the money will be well spent when the class sponsors the Junior-Senior Prom, among other projects.

The class had capable leadership in President Mary Choi, Vice-President Bryan Ayars, Secretary Sue Lutz, Treasurer

Lori Nauffts, and Historian Julie Barger.

The Franklin House of the high school will never be the same after the record number of students move south to the Buchanan House; but according to all accounts, the world may never be the same after the money-making sophomores are turned loose.

Freshmen's Super Spirit Sparks All-Around Successful Year

The Freshmen class began the year by strongly proclaiming spirit, a traditional trait exhibited by energetic ninth graders. The class won the "Spirit Stick" during the first pep rally of the year by simply out-screaming their upperclass competition. Their spirits continued throughout the year in sales, sports, rallies and other activities. Freshman activities included a Fun Night in October, a dance featuring Justin, a swim party at Golden Meadows and a hoagie sale in April.

Members of the class sold balloons during the Homecoming festivities. Their Statue of Liberty float was a job well done, but failed to capture the grand prize in float competition. However, freshman teams and groups showed first-class effort and leadership through the year. The Frosh football team went undefeated to run their streak to 17 wins over a three year period. The Freshman soccer, basketball, wrestling and field hockey squads presented more than respectful records.

The class was advised by Miss Susan Beck and Mr. Lee Gajecki. Class President was Rob Nicky. Officers were Vice-President Brent Wagner, Secretary Jo Wilson, Historian Kandy Brooks and Treasurer Sue Sheetz.

Best Ever Cross Country Team; Second In State

This past fall, the Black Knights produced one of the finest cross country teams ever at Hempfield, and ran past every team in the league and District III. They eventually took a second place in the state championship run to climax an amazing season.

Their perfect (17-0) record earned them the title of league champions after some crucial meets with Manheim Township and Solanco. They nipped Township, 27-28, and stopped Solanco, 26-33. The Harriers then finished the season with easy wins and advanced to the All-League and District III meets. When the dust cleared, Hempfield had gained two more victories. The team also won an invitational meet at Lebanon Valley and went on to state competition to capture their second place honors.

All through the long endurance-testing season, the Harriers were led by senior co-captains Greg Cauller and Ron Miller. Cauller was excellent throughout the regular season, setting new course records before finishing second in the All-League and winning District III's Class AAA division with a record time. He finished fifth in the state championships to pace the Knights, a squad that found total team effort equaled success.

Consistant Players, Super Coaching, Enthusiastic Bench Help Hempfield Field Hockey Team To "Great" Season

Led by some super coaching, a mix of outstanding seniors, underclassman players and a "wildly enthusiastic bench," the '76 Field Hockey team fought its way to a strong second place finish in league play and a playoff spot in District III competition.

The Lady Knights, predicted to do well, followed up on the press clippings as they finished as one of the strongest teams in the area. They entered district playoffs, knocked off Holly Name 2-0, Cedar Cliff 2-0, and went on to stop East Pennsboro 3-1.

Hempfield faced a strong Manheim Central squad in the semifinals and lost a heart-breaking contest decided by penetration time to the eventual state champions.

The season "dogfight" began with a disappointing 1-1 tie with Pequea Valley, but the Knights came back to win the next three games on shutouts. The team then fought to a scoreless tie with CV, but won their last two games to gain a tie for second.

The team was always noted to be fighting for the "goose egg," a fact the defense bore out by allowing only seven goals.

The defense consisted of Lisa Evans (co-captain), Rita Benjamin, Deb Christian, Linda Eby, Julie Goetz, Sue Heth and Sue Stauffer.

Offensively the scoring was left up to Abby Brackbill, Carol Miller, Carol Rankin (co-captain), Betsy Reese, Joanne Stauffer and Patsy Wickenheiser.

Christian, Eby, Evans, Miller and Rankin were chosen for the League All-Star team and Benjamin earned honorable mention recognition.

Head coach Miss Sharon Sweger and her assistant Miss Mary Ann Lahr should again come through with another strong team in '77. Returning varsity players, combined with upcoming players from the J.V. team, winners of their division in '76, will provide the skill for a super season.

Hempfield's football team surprised more than a few so-called "experts" in 1976 by winning almost half their games and giving top teams a "run for their money."

The Black Knights, led by senior Jeff Ault, crushed Columbia and Susquehanna Township and then blanked Cedar Crest to sport a 3-0 mark early in the year. The Knights then took on a powerful Lancaster Catholic, but after a bruising battle lost the contest, 20-6.

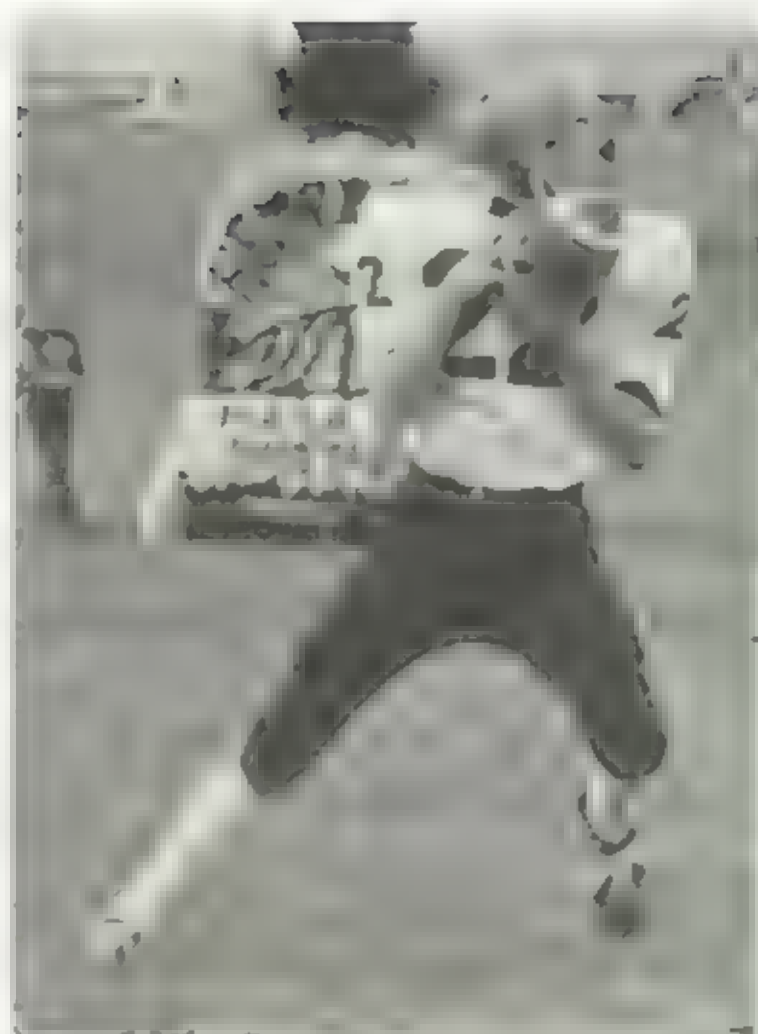

Hempfield won two games against Berks County teams by overpowering Muhlenberg and then playing the game of the year against Governor Mifflin. Hempfield trailed by three TDs in the Mifflin contest, but rallied in the last half to win the game, 28-27. Coach Bob Wildasin called the team effort the best he has seen in a long time and one he was very proud to see.

In addition to Ault, who played fullback and middle linebacker, the Knights featured Jim Hilt, John Keener, Dave Christian, Ryan Strait, Scott Benjamin, Leo Hutton, and Jeff Ream on offense.

On defense the team went with Jay Duke, Mike Reinfried, Steve Resaler, Mickey Shimp, Don Kissinger, Jim Bachman, and Tom Francis.

Players who went both ways include Tom Jackson, Warren Taylor, Steve Hower, Jim Kreiser, Steve Smith and Ault.

When you are a defending champion, opposing teams gear themselves for glory via the upset route. Hempfield entered the season as such a team and almost denied their opponents of glory; however, some poor "bounces" and "luck" combined with some letdowns clipped the Black Knight soccer team.

By most standards the Knights had a great year (12-3-1), but those standards fail to take into account the tradition and intensity of soccer at Hempfield.

After two non-league wins, the Knights slipped by losing their opener to Elizabethtown indicating a sign of things to come. Two victories followed and then a tie with McCaskey that "should never have been" appeared to undo the Knights. Five more wins followed, but Hempfield lost their chance to win the title by suffering back-to-back losses to the league leaders.

Despite the failure to win the title, coach Al Shuss and his assistant Jim Grant were somewhat satisfied because of the team's effort throughout the year.

The Knight attack was led by senior tri-captains Kent Arnold, Joe Harriger and Andy Males. Other senior standouts were Bjorn Carlson, John Davidson, Dave Hoster, Andy Huffman, Jon Perezous, John Shetromph, Dan Silknetter, and Jim Sperry.

Juniors who should be main stays in '77 and helped the '76 team were Kevin Kauffman, Mat King, and Jeff Webb.

Golf Team Ties For First

The golf team completed its season with another impressive league and overall record by finishing 13-3 overall and 9-1 in the League and a tie for first with Manheim Township

Hempfield and Township split their two regular season matches, but Township won the league title with a close 8-12 win in match play

Four of the top six golfers on the team qualified for the District III Tourney, the most qualifiers from the 24 school league.

Top man was senior Curt Parmer, who averaged 76 for the year. Seniors Gary Ament and Mark Uehlein finished with respective 80-81 averages. Sophomores Bob Carter, Kevin Lutz, Bob Oliver, and Jim Hawthorne were impressive during the season as was freshman Pete Lamb

Coach Clayton Bell said "When the season ended, there was little doubt we had the best team in the section."

Boys Vault To Strong Season

Tri-captains and seniors Bob Nendza, Steve McKee and Dave Hickernell helped propel Hempfield's traditionally strong gymnastics team to a strong second-place finish in 1977.

The team finished with a 7-1 mark, the only loss coming at the hands of league champion Penn Manor. The team really showed its true colors during District III competition by scoring 111.71, highest of the year.

Nendza won the All-Around title in the County Meet by grabbing top honors in floor exercise, vaulting, and rings. McKee won the side horse and both placed in the District meet to qualify for the state championships. Nendza was third at states in floor exercise.

Coach Rick Alexander's team was rounded out by senior Eric Highberg and underclassmen Mitch Heim, Scott Nendza, Andy Shappell, and Gerry Albright.

Girls Do Well Despite Inexperience

Wins were hard to come by for the 1977 Girls' Gymnastics Team, but the team continued to work hard throughout the year and intends to be a title contender in the very near future.

Coached by Mrs. Sue Weidman, the Lady Knights started with a win over Manheim Township, but the team's inexperience showed as the season progressed. Individually, however, the girls did qualify seven for post-season competition.

Senior captain Dawn Fry provided the leadership and was the star performer on the uneven bars. She was joined by senior Pat Miller and Bev Guerin. Juniors Cindy Kissinger, Phyllis Farmer, and Bev Tuley showed skill and form as the season progressed.

Underclassman Jean McDermott illustrated her talents throughout the year along with Gay Albright, Linda Bundy, Meryl Schmidt, Shelley Droege, and Jenny Alexieff.

Awesome Knights (24-4) Capture Section Title; Just Miss In Eastern State Championship

Hempfield unveiled a powerhouse basketball team that dribbled through and over the opposition with uncanny ease, winning 24 of 28 before bowing to Shamokin in the state Eastern quarter-final by a heart-breaking point.

Del Warfel coached the Knights to a title in the tough Section II conference, but the Knights were caught on an off night in their bid for the league crown and were upset by eventual state AA champion Cocalico.

Their confidence somewhat shattered, Hempfield struggled in their opening playoff bids before barely losing to Reading in District play. The Knights came back to smash District I champion Conestoga before bowing out of the tourney against Shamokin.

Leading Hempfield all year were seniors Joe Harriger, Andy Huffman, Curt Uehlein, Doug Stead and sophomore Bill Gouba with junior Rich Dyer. The team was rounded out with John Hussar, Phil Cook, Bill Smith, Curt Parmer, Dave Trond, Roy Hykes and Adam McCarthy.

Harriger, an all-league super-quick playmaker, consistently wowed the crowd with his lightening-fast play. A tri-captain with Huffman and Uehlein, Harriger could always find the open man and often appeared to defy gravity by driving up, through and by opponents.

Huffman, an all-league player, starred inside and outside on offense and was a sure rebounder on defense. His leaping ability was often awesome—even against bigger men.

Uehlein owned a smooth shot and good moves on offense and was a strong rebounder. Curt played the high post with authority and often demolished opponents and teams.

Stead was a real surprise who constantly showed good strength rebounding and shooting. An unselfish player, Doug often worked to set up plays and clean up any mistakes.

Gouba was the team's shooter who completely frustrated teams with his accuracy and ability to get open for the deadly jump shot.

Dyer filled in well during the year as playmaker, shooter and defender. He often made the three-guard offense click and had the ability to get "hot" fast off the bench.

Silky Smooth Girls Second In L-L League

Hempfield's smooth-running but hard-pressing Girls Basketball team finished with another highly impressive (18-4) record; however a pair of heartbreaking playoff losses dashed any chance for the school's first-ever Section III or District III title.

The Lady Knights traded close decisions with eventual league champion Lampeter-Strasburg, but lost to L-S in the last three minutes of their Sectional Championship game. The team reached semi-final action in District III play by stopping Dallastown, 37-33, and York Suburban, 50-43, before losing to a strong Bishop McDevitt team, 59-46. The loss at the end of the season was disappointing, but the girls had plenty to be proud of during and after the season.

Leading the team with rebounds was senior Lisa Evans and a big scoring punch was provided by Rita Benjamin. Linda Wissing did an outstanding job along with Betsy Reese and Joni Honberger. The squad captains were Benjamin and Evans.

Also assisting in the Hempfield attack under head coach Sharon Sweger and her assistant, Kathy Freidly, were junior starters Carol Miller and Denise Beck. Sue Baker was another outstanding junior. The sophomore team members were Sue Arnold and Lori Richards. The only freshman was Marilyn Senz.

Benjamin was named first-team all-league. Beck, Evans and Miller were Honorable Mention. The team also won the Elizabethtown Christmas tourney for the 3rd straight year.

Underclassmen Lead Matmen

Hempfield's underclassmen-loaded team learned some lessons the hard way during the 1976-77 season, but strong individual performances by sophomores Brian Opp and Dave Malles and senior Warren Taylor kept the Knights respectable in league action.

The matmen finished with a disappointing 4-10 record, but Opp and Malles sported undefeated marks going into Sectional competition. Both lightweights along with heavyweight Taylor were seeded for the tourney. Malles won the title at 98, Opp was second at 105 and Taylor took a third. The big surprise was sophomore Andy Houser at 155 in the Sectional meet. He pulled a major upset and finished a strong third to qualify for District III action.

Team-wise the Knights beat Cedar Crest, Garden Spot, CV and L-S. The win over Cedar Crest was memorable as the matmen came home with a 54-3 rout.

Head coach Dwight Bomberger and assistant Jay Miller have a lot to look forward to as both the JV and freshman teams looked impressive.

Mermen Show Team Depth

The 1976-77 edition of the Hempfield Mermen compiled a sparkling record of 13 wins and only two losses! This marks the best dual meet season in the ten year history of boys' swimming at Hempfield.

Highpoints of the season were the joint team victory in the Third Annual Holiday Relay Carnival, the hard fought victories over Governor Mifflin and Cedar Crest, and a creditable showing at "Districts" with one swimmer qualifying for States.

The outstanding 93-79 win over "Mifflin" was described by Coach Andrew Amway as "the finest performance by a boys' swim team at Hempfield in the past five years." In their last home meet, the seniors provided Coach Amway with one last memory: they presented him with his 100th career victory by storming back in the last three events to "steal" the meet 90-82.

Best Dual Meet Mark In Decade

As in the past, the success of the swim team was largely due to team unity and great depth. In continuing this trend through the past season, the mermen were bolstered by the emergence of freshman Jeff Smith as one of the top distance swimmers of the District. His school record time of 5:00.73 in the 500 yard freestyle placed him third at Districts, while he also set a new mark in the 200 yard event with a clocking of 1:52 during the regular season.

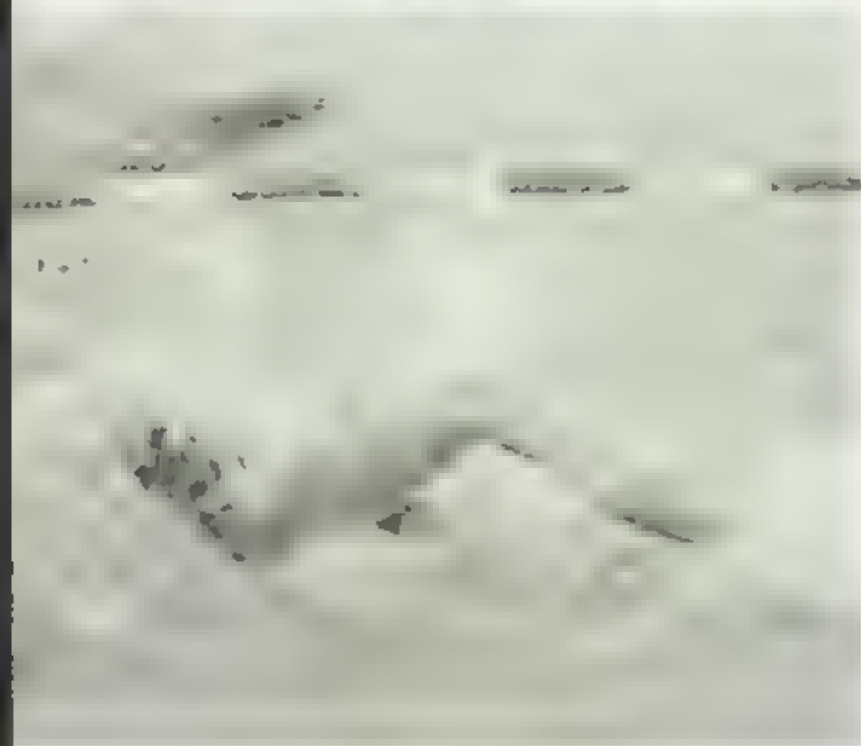

A host of seniors, led by tri-captains Kent Arnold, Dwight Gold, and Jon Perezous, provided the team with experience and leadership. Marc Womeldorf, Doug Swatski, Richard Tobias and divers, Larry Barrett and Bob Clark, will all be sorely missed next year as well.

Mermaids Keep Winning Ways

Tri-captains Iris Markow, Diane Newcomer and Carol Dreyer helped splash the '76-77 Hempfield mermaids to another winning season—an accomplishment many observers have come to expect as automatic with the girls.

The lady Knights were not weaker than previous years, but a powerhouse Manheim Township team managed to give the girls their first loss ever since the sport became official here three years ago. The mermaids finished with a highly impressive 15-1 mark and stopped powers Cedar Crest and Wilson.

Sandy Bizal turned in an outstanding individual show with a first in the 50 free and a second in the 100 butterfly at Districts. In state competition she was 6th in the 100 and 7th in the 50 freestyle. Sandy joined Markow, Gretchen Miller and Anne Henry at states in the 400 freestyle relay.

Sarah Poole, Val Renner and Deb Christian returned as the leading Senior players to help the Girls' Tennis Team to another impressive year.

After countless hours, of practice the girls took on Annville-Cleona and followed with 17 more tough matches.

Lori Emich showed great improvement and helped the team along with Lisa Huggins, Lani Benjamin, Lynn Witmer and JoAnn Snavelly. Mrs. Diane St. Clair was head coach.

Baseball Team Relies On Seniors

The Black Knight baseball team had another strong season with good performances turned in by seniors Joe Darrenkamp, Jeff Ault, Don Collier, Joe Harriger and Don Kissinger.

Tom Francis proved a master with the bat once

Track Team Relies On Underclassmen

Head Coach Marvin Cochran and assistants Brian Peters and Glenn Shaffer quickly organized a group of 60 plus to achieve another Lancaster County powerhouse in track and field.

Underclassmen appeared to dominate most of the spots on the team, but experienced Seniors again led the way for the Knights.

'Racing Rasins' Leave Them At The Line

Coached by Mrs. Mary Fairbanks and Mr. William Bowers, the traditionally powerful Hempfield Girls Track Team came through with another great season.

Many upperclassmen returned to help the squad. The team was paced by seniors Linda Eby, Carol Rankin, Patsy Wickenheiser and Diane Groff. Underclassmen Carol Miller and Phyllis Huber also helped bring points home to the "Racing Raisins."

Underclassmen Help Checkmate Opponents

Rook to K4 or Queen to K3 or a number of other moves on the chess board didn't always seem to work for the Hempfield Chess squad in 1977, but the young team learned from early mistakes to finish with a representable year.

The first five boards were manned by three sophomores and two juniors, indicating the Knights will once again be a powerhouse in league play.

Sophomore Bob D'Amato held down first board and was followed by sophomore John Grosh, junior Edmund Pribitkin, sophomore Steve Hobman and junior Jeff Murry. Club advisor was Mr. John Deaner.

Vo-Tech Courses Range From Auto Mechanics, Carpentry, Textiles . . . To Food Trades, Floriculture, Decorating . . .

The three Lancaster County Vo-Tech schools, located at Brownstown, Mount Joy, and Willow Street, provide a unique education for students who wish to develop their talents and skills in order to earn a living and contribute to society. Vocational-technical education is an important phase in the future development of a fully comprehensive educational program, and also stimulates sound character, creativity, and pride in one's work.

Students attend Vo-Tech on a shared-time basis, spending half-days at Vo-Tech and half days at their home school. This procedure permits students to receive job entry-level training leading to employment. Students retain identity with the home school by receiving academic courses there.

A wide selection of courses is provided in order to meet the students' interests and abilities. These courses include Appliance Repair, Auto Body Repair, Auto Mechanics, Building Maintenance, Business Data Processing, Carpentry, Commercial Art, Cosmetology, Data Processing Technology, Distributive Education, Drafting, Electrical Occupations, Electronics, Floriculture, Food Trades, Graphic Arts, Health Assistant, Heating and Ventilating, Horticulture, Machine Shop, Masonry, Materials Handling, Millwork, Painting and Decorating, Patternmaking, Sheet Metal, Textiles, Welding, and Vocational Cooperative Education.

M*A*S*H

Captures Audience Delight

Mike Lipman and Dan Rader delighted the audience with their superlative development of the characters Hawkeye Pierce and Duke Forrest in the hit comedy M*A*S*H presented at the Hackman Auditorium in early December.

Joining Lipman and Rader with strong performances were Patty Dodds as Lt. Col. Henrietta Blake, Jane Shipe as Capt. Bridget McCarthy, and Leona Agouridis as Hot Lips.

The play, based on the hit movie and T.V. show, was directed by Mr. Thomas Quinn. The audience was captivated both nights of the successful performance presented by the cast of 30

Senior Girls Victorious

The 1976 Powder Puff football game ended in another victory for the senior girls and another coaching setback for Principal Richard Harclerode and math teacher Barry Henry.

The game, which took place in late October before freezing spectators, featured the strong-arm of quarterback Becky Hoffman and the fleet running of Patsy Wickenheiser, Stephanie Russel, Barb Schlegelmilch, and Kerri Sauder. The final score was 20-6.

The seniors were heavy favorites after battling to a 6-6 tie in 1975 as a Junior Class.

The juniors were simply out-played. Their only score came late in the game on a brilliant 70 yard run by Sue Getz. Quarterback Kathy Benjamin's team never put things together, but the juniors offered no excuses.

Senior TD's were scored by Wickenheiser, Linda Wissing, and Schlegelmilch, but Hoffman's passes and running kept the juniors off guard and off the scoreboard. The team was coached by Del Warfel and Ted King.

Both teams featured outstanding cheerleading by some odd looking Key Club members. There was little question that the seniors played superior ball, but the juniors took mental notes and will be favorites in '77's contest.

Rain Fails To Dampen Homecoming Festivities

Despite a postponement due to rain, the 1976 Homecoming festivities were a rousing success to many and somewhat of a disappointment for a few.

Jodi Mellinger was crowned Homecoming Queen, the Junior Class captured first place in the float competition, the AFS Chicken Barbeque sale was profitable, and the school danced to the music of "Torch" and huge amplifiers. One disappointment was the football team's loss to McCaskey, but the team did trounce Governor Mifflin on the second Homecoming date to round out a good year.

Jodi was escorted by Joe Darrenkamp and led a Homecoming Court of Jane Shipe, Rita Benjamin, Amy Martin, and Julie Goetz. Their escorts were, respectively, Andy Huffman, Pete Musser, Dwight Gold, and Kent Arnold. Exchange students Kaisa Rautiainen and Andrea Goertz were Homecoming Princesses at the affair. They were escorted by Bjorn Carlson and Julio Fischer.

"Don't Tread On Me—Tread On Mifflin" won the contest for the juniors. The senior float read "Get On Board The Black Knight Victory Train." The sophomores had "The Mustangs Are A Piece Of Cake," while the frosh came on with "Burn The Mustangs."

Spring Play Adds Drama

THE MIRACLE WORKER, Hempfield's Spring Play, dazzled the audience by shattering the myth that high school plays must be romantic comedies in order to be successful.

The heartwarming play centered around Annie Sullivan and her attempt to communicate with Helen Keller who is blind and deaf. Patt Dodds performed the role of Annie and Leona Agouridis presented the character of Helen Keller.

According to director Mr. Alan Shuss, the play's dramatic acting and involved technical work made the THE MIRACLE WORKER most difficult.

Other roles included Tracy Styer as Helen's mother, Mike Lipman as Helen's father, and Joe Bohrer as Helen's brother. The cast was completed by Linda Gingrich, Lisa Cover, Paula Silverstein, Melissa Laine, Mary Jo Bensinger, Sherry Groff, Lisa Brinker, Sue Grim, Mary Lincoln, Beth Wiegand, and Dave Trond.

Seniors Enjoy D.C. Class Trip

The Senior class trip in mid March started with doughnuts, cookies, candy, pretzels, and just about any kind of food imaginable. Eating was a big part of the day's experiences, but the tours of different buildings were impressive. Especially interesting was the tour of the FBI building, where each student had to be security checked upon entering.

The 140 Seniors and 11 chaperones were guided through the nation's Capitol, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and the Smithsonian Institute.

For four hours, Hempfield's upperclassmen were "set-loose" to see the sites of their choice, meeting later for a long-awaited dinner at Hogates Restaurant, an impressive site in itself.

Sleepy, exhausted bodies made their way back to the buses for the trip home, some 15 hours from the beginning.

A special thanks goes to Mr. James Madara for capturing the memories of the trip on film.

Marching Band Adds Color

The '76 season proved to be a cold, yet successful one for the Black Knight Marching Band. Under the leadership of Mr. Henry Fox and his assistant Mr. Gary Luckenbill, the 100 members added color and harmony to the football games.

In addition to their regular half-time shows, the band did two combined shows this year. The traditional show with Manheim Township was again featured. For the homecoming show, the Junior High Band joined the regular band to perform "The Sound of Music."

For leadership, the band looked to its few, but dedicated, senior members and drum major Gary Rohler. Do Rossi proved to be a capable announcer in his debut as "the voice of the Black Knights."

Other traditional events which again were a part of the season were the annual party, school assemblies and parents' concerts.

The gun squad again proved to be a delight under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Grant and captain Karen Lines.

The majorettes and flag squad were also directed by Mrs. Nancy Grant. The majorettes were led by Tammy Kleine and the flag squad was captained by Kay Adams.

District Chorus Big Success

Hempfield played host to the District Chorus Festival in late January, a two-day affair that included 200 of the best vocalists in District Seven. The program was a huge success for all involved and produced some of the best sounds the school has been honored with in many years.

Guest conductor for the festival was Dr. Gerald Mack, Director of Choral Activities and Associate Professor of Music Education at Hartt College of Music.

Hempfield was honored by having one of its students, Nanette Gaeta, perform a solo for the festival. A total of 13 Hempfield students participated in the choral festival after competition with some 700 students for spots in the festival.

The entire program was arranged and coordinated by the Hempfield Music Department under the direction of Mr. Richard Kline, Music Department Chairman.

'Pajama Game' No Sleeper

"The Pajama Game," a delightful comedy, deals with a conflict between the management and union in a pajama factory. The president of the factory, Myron Hasler (Dave Lewis), insists that a raise is unnecessary. The union chief, Prez (Ted Meiskey), decides otherwise. The company's new superintendent, Sid (Brian Meenan), falls for a high union official, Babe Williams (Nanette Gaeta) who is eventually fired. The plot thickens before it ends happily.

Other cast members were Jon Wright, June Grube, Priscilla Barden, Francine duPlant, Kathy Silvius, Pam Reindollar, Dan Rader, Dave Lohin, Gary Koehler, Bob Geisenberger and Dave Jennys.

TOP: Ted Meiskey, Nanette Gaeta and company plead for a raise
